

THE HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF DENVER
APPLICATION FACT SHEET

The Denver Housing Authority (DHA), 777 Grant Street, was created in 1938 to house low and moderate-income families. DHA owns and manages approximately 4,000 units through out the City and County of Denver under the Public Housing program and approximately 4,000 Certificates and Vouchers under the Section 8 program. The DHA provides Equal Opportunity Housing and follows the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) mandates regarding Affirmative Action. DHA administers various housing programs: conventional row-type developments, dispersed, senior citizen, and Section Eight Rental programs. These programs are funded by HUD. A notice is published in Denver's two major newspapers whenever the programs open or close. All units subsidized by the DHA are unfurnished except for ranges and refrigerators. DHA is required by QWHRA to allow pets in public housing developments.
