PARTNERSHIPS AND FUNDING

- The primary source of funding for DHA is the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.
- The City and County of Denver provides DHA with grants from the City's HOME Investment Partnership Program and Community Development Block Grant.

HOUSING PROGRAMS AND ACTIVITIES

- HUD Public Housing Program
- Housing Choice Voucher Housing Program

In addition to federal programs, DHA has created various instrumentalities to explore and develop innovative techniques to provide alternative housing possibilities and avenues for achieving financial self-sufficiency for residents who have low-to-moderate incomes. These programs have allowed DHA the flexibility to develop several private/public partnerships providing a variety of housing opportunities for Denver residents.

DHA strives to support its residents working towards self-sufficiency through a variety of programs for all age groups to improve their quality of life.

The Board of Commissioners consists of nine members who have been appointed by the Mayor of the City and County of Denver.

DHA connects with Denver neighborhoods to create opportunities for economic mobility, healthy living, training, education, and employment.
