THE HOUSING AUTHORITY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF DENVER'S RECOGNITION OF RESIDENTS RIGHT TO EQUAL ACCESS TO DHA'S COMMUNITY ROOMS

The Housing Authority of the City and County of Denver (DHA) ensures that all DHA Residents are afforded the equal access to DHA Community Rooms for private functions, regardless of the basis of the religious, political, philosophical, or other content of the speech at such private functions.

Community Rooms are available for use by its Residents when not being used by DHA. DHA Residents may only use the Community Room(s) available for the property in which they live. Community Rooms are not open for Public Use to the general public. DHA limits the use of Community Rooms to DHA Residents, and Residents invited guests.

DHA shall not exclude any Resident from using the Community Room because of the viewpoint they plan to express. Community Rooms are available to all DHA Residents, within the guidelines of the "Community Room Use Agreement". The Community Room Use Agreement Rules and Regulations are applied to all Residents regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of the Resident(s).

The use by Resident(s), and the content of the Resident(s)' use of the Community Room, does not constitute an endorsement of, or any opinion about, the philosophy of such group by DHA. Residents may not use DHA's name in any way to indicate that DHA is sponsoring an event held by Residents. DHA staff may not, in their professional capacity, endorse these private events, and must not participate in these events in their professional capacity.
